TopEng Consulting (Pty) Ltd (“TopEng”) provides professional civil, structural, electrical, and project management services. The information, drawings, technical content, and materials published on this website are for general informational purposes only and should not be considered professional engineering advice, design documentation, or a substitute for project-specific consultation.

Although every effort is made to keep the information accurate, TopEng makes no warranties, representations, or guarantees, express or implied, regarding the completeness, accuracy, reliability, suitability, or applicability of any content for a particular project or purpose. Engineering solutions depend on project-specific factors such as site conditions, geotechnical data, codes of practice, environmental influences, and client requirements. TopEng will not be liable for any direct, indirect, incidental, or consequential loss or damage arising from:

- Use of information contained on the website
- Reliance on preliminary or generic engineering content
- Use of any tools, calculations, or guidelines referenced
- Errors, omissions, or outdated technical information

Any reliance placed on information from this website is strictly at the user’s own risk. For all engineering decisions, you must consult a qualified professional from TopEng for a full assessment and signed-off engineering documentation.
